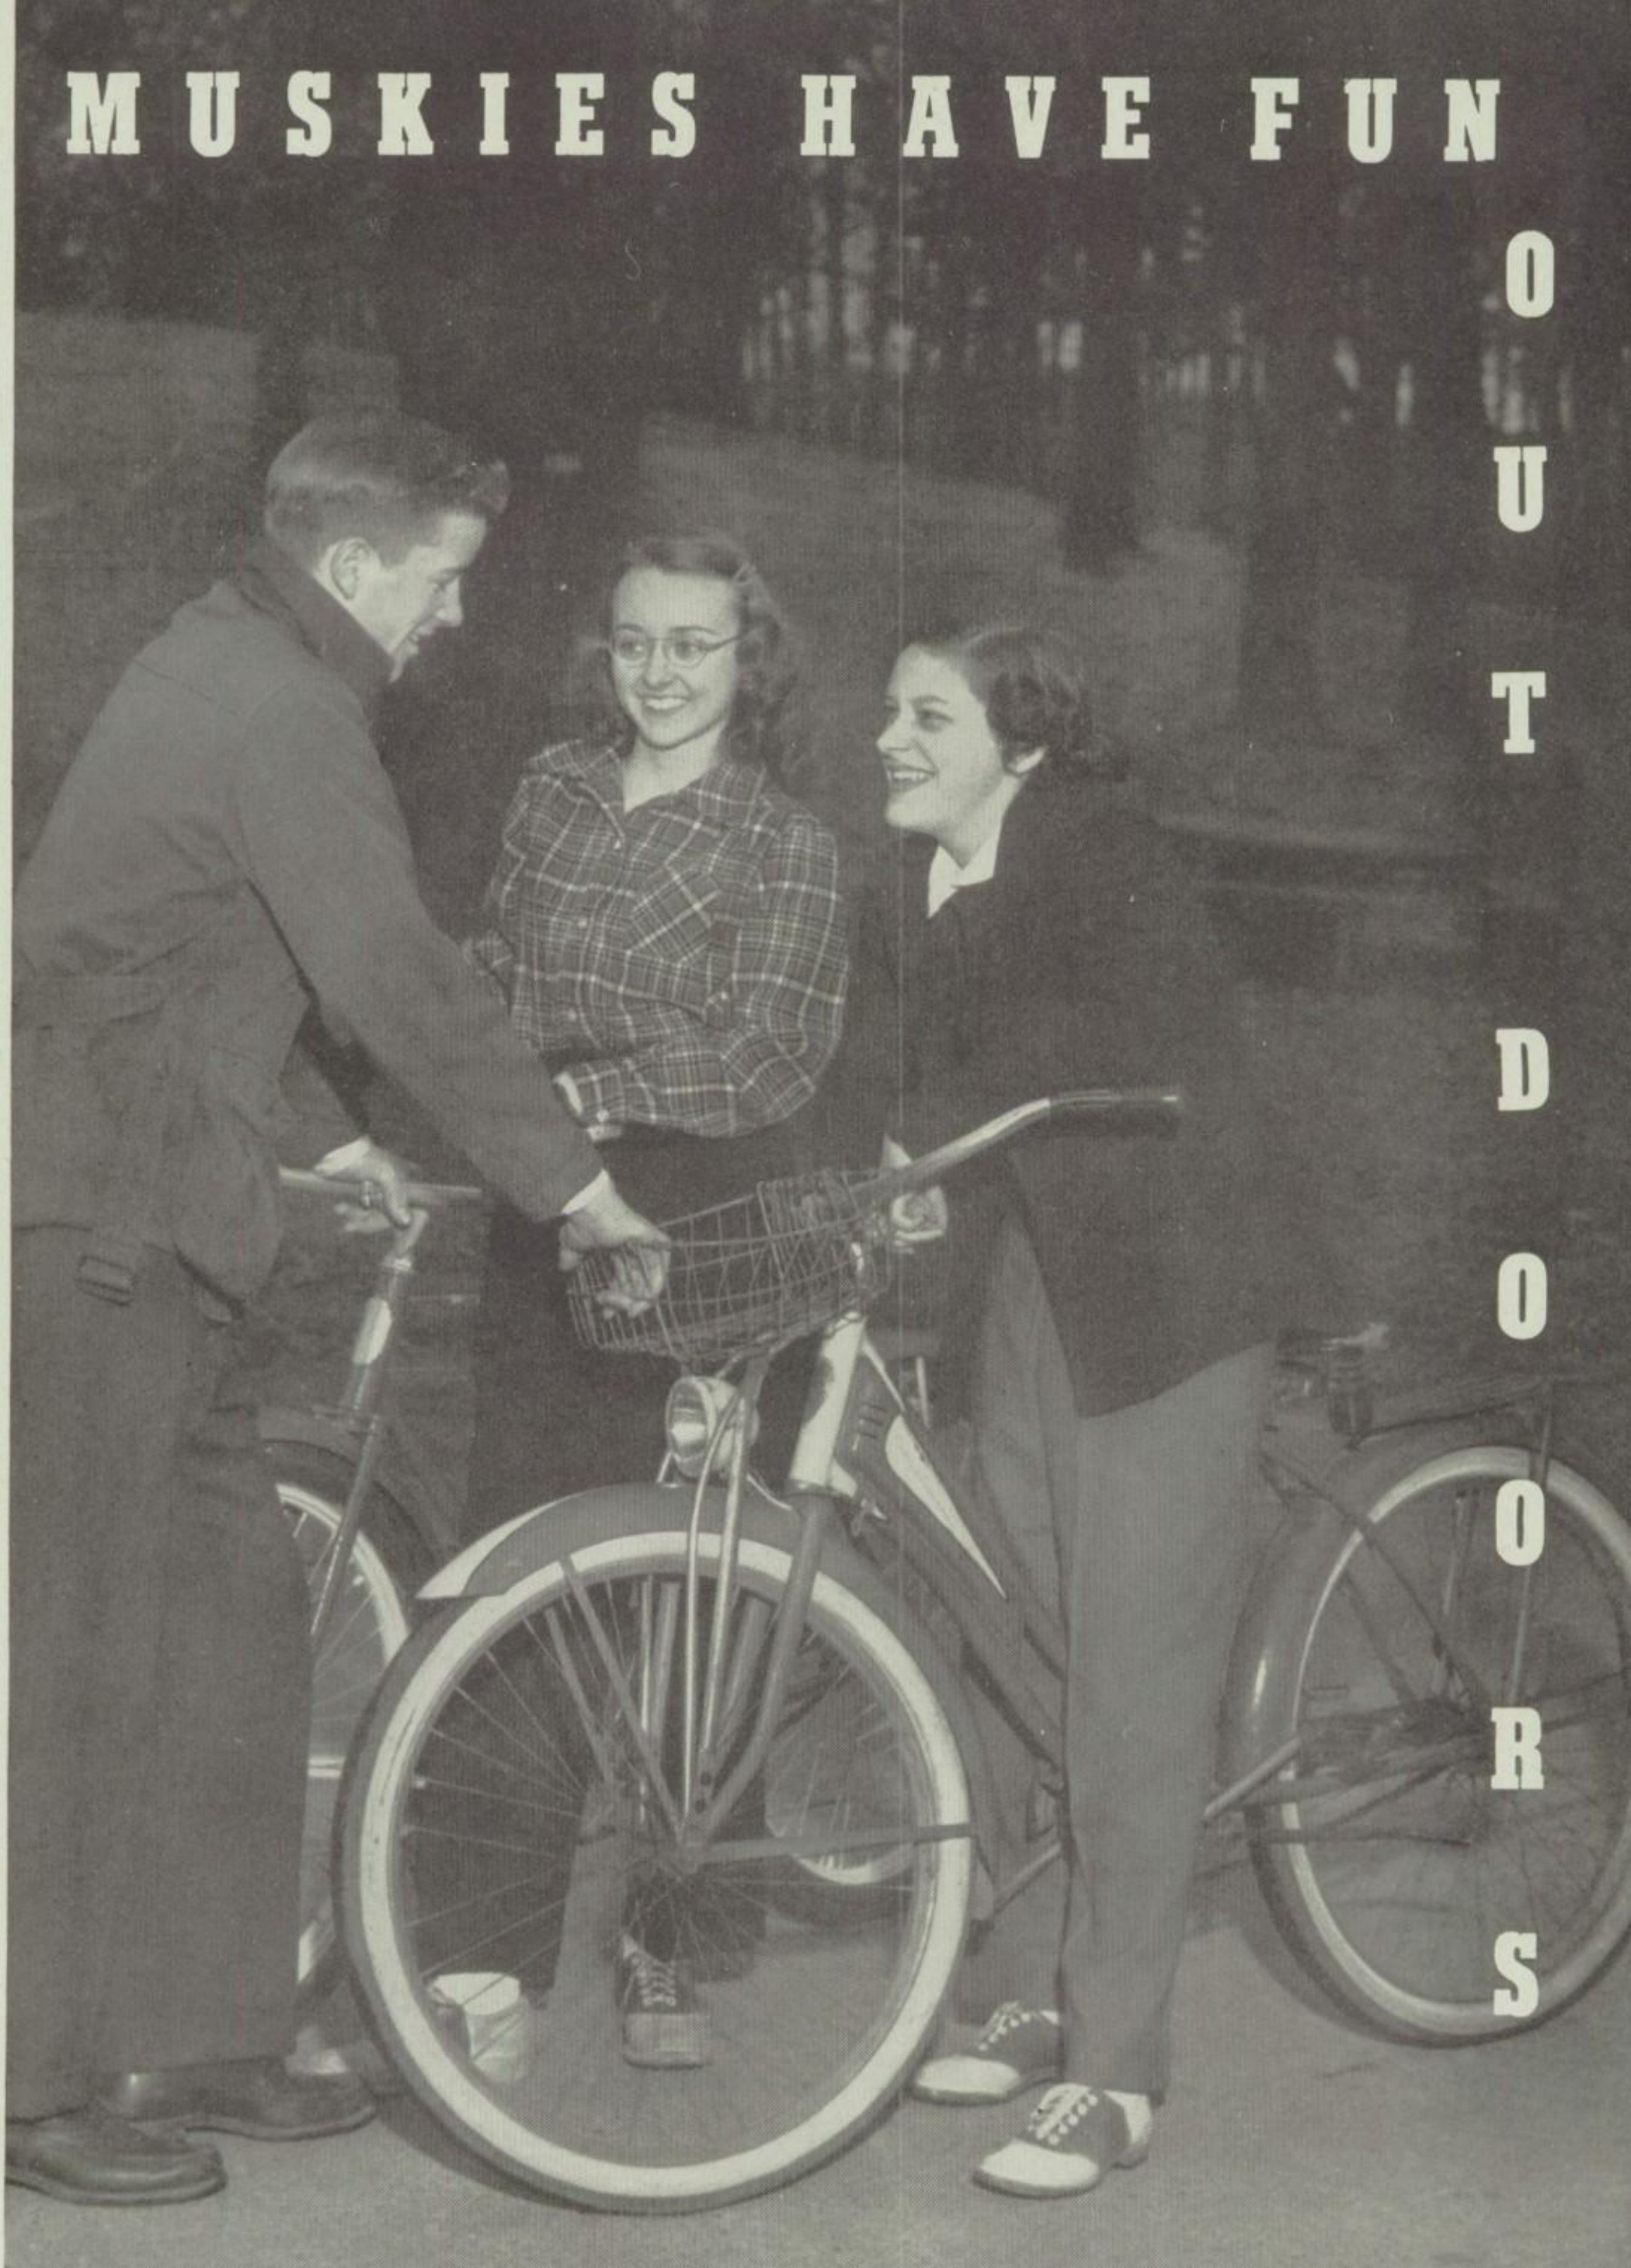
MUSKIES HAVE FUN OUTDOORS



Skating, bonfires, sliding, and just visiting all meant fun for Muskies when they left school for the outdoors. Vera Phillips and Bill Sturms were getting warm by the bonfire after an afternoon of skating while Jerry Grady tussled with Kathryn Stumme's skates . . . It was a double feature when the Crow twins went sliding. Brother Ronald decided that it was time for Donald to hit the snow . . . Muskies were sometimes energetic hikers, but they liked to rest, too. John Phillips, left, Pat Beisner, Eunice Weber, and Jerry Beltman talked over the recent happenings as they rested at a fence stile after a hike through the fields.

Betty Sorrells, Kathryn Weber, and Ann Prochaska watched Barbara Whitmer's attempts to pull Joanne Messenger up on the straw pile . . . Al Messenger took his gun from its case for an afternoon of hunting . . . Tom Marten and Dick Kuebler discussed a camera lens . . . Carol Duncan and Kathleen Coder found that their horse really enjoyed eating candy corn . . . Gene Mueller, Vic Ziegenhorn, Harlan Phillips, and Marvin Hoeksema piled four deep on a sled to take a short ride . . . Laura McCray and Norma Dollman tried to teach their dog to sit up

MUSKIES HAVE FUN AT HOME

Muskies found many forms of diversion around home to provide them with fun and relaxation. Even such chores as pressing pants and fixing skirt lengths can prove to be fun at times . . . Kay Swickard and Jim Torrence had to move rapidly in a hotly contested game of double solitaire . . . Mayonnaise, pickles, ketchup, mustard, lettuce, and cold meat went into the Dagwood sandwiches which Vernon Toyne and Duane Sywassink made to complete a perfect evening . . . Bonnie Doering wore a worried look as she tried to figure a way to lengthen her skirts to conform with the "new look" . . . A scrapbook of past events renewed many pleasant memories in the mind of Marcia Wagner as she reminisced on one of her nights at home . . . Although he wasn't having much fun at the time, Bill Hoben's attempts to press a pair of pants resulted in a good time at a future date.

With school hours over, many Muskies had fun during their hours at home . . . A quiet evening at home found Ted Hahn watching intently as Joan Clark embroidered another article for her hope chest . . . Even the menial task of shampooing one's hair can have its more carefree moments, especially when it is done by more than one person. This fact was borne out by Marilyn Eichenauer and Irene Schmarje when they got together for an evening of hairwashing and hair-setting . . . Vernon King relaxed in an easy chair and found something amusing in the Muscatine Journal . . . Alice Sargent didn't have any trouble finding good music while she had fun poring over the record collection in an attempt to put the records in order . . . Mildred Watts and Doris Fletcher rearranged a collection of statuettes and glass vases on glass shelves.

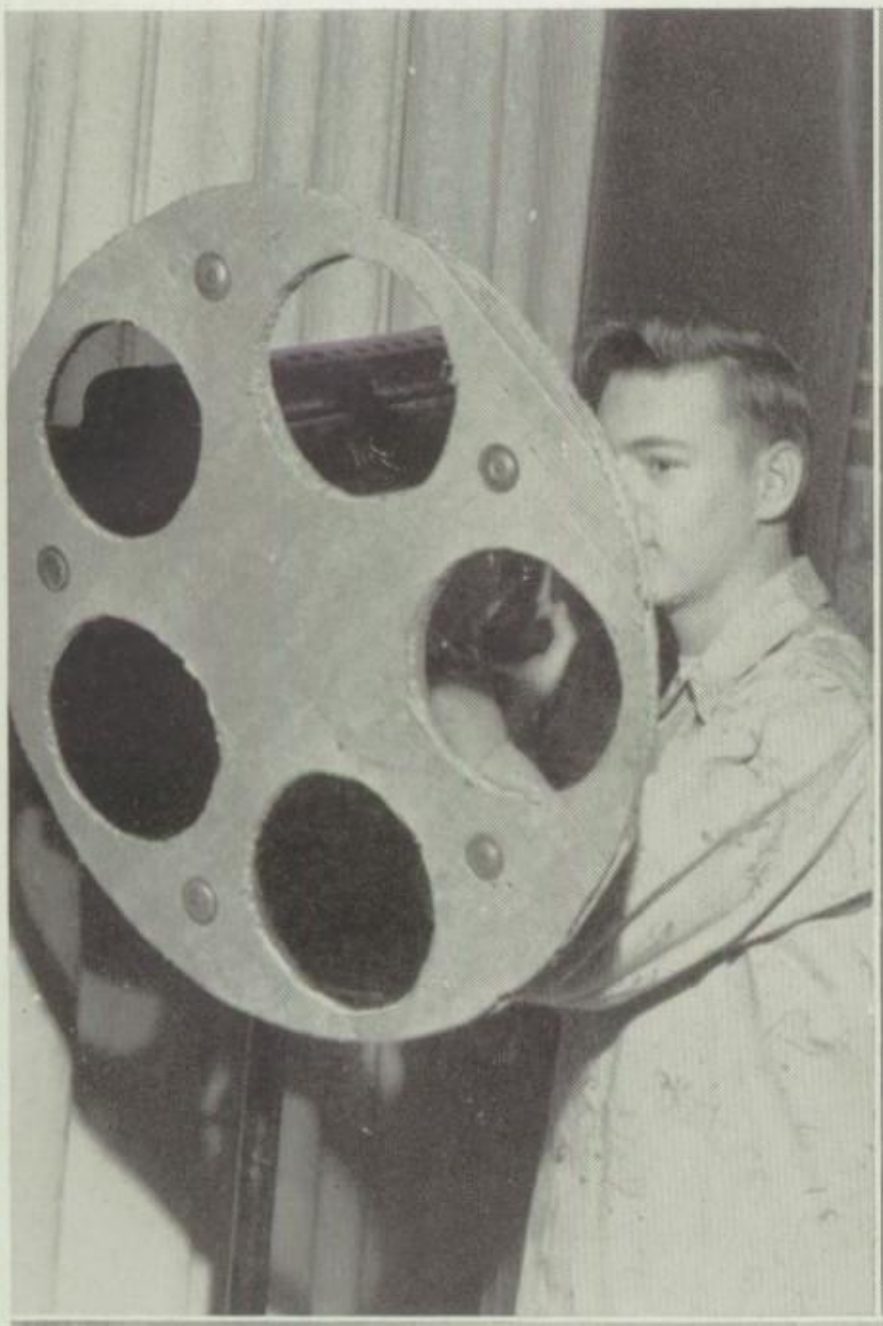
MUSKIES HAVE FUN IN SCHOOL

The all-school play meant work and fun for the cast and the stage and property crews . . . Under the direction of Pat Zeug, Greg Beitz and Cliff Fisher arranged a stairway on the stage . . . In the final scene of the all-school play, "A Credit to the Family," Tarzan, alias Jerry Bouland, triumphantly displayed his captive, John Aden. Kneeling around the victim were Ray Freers, Bonnie Willits, Marian Isaacs, Brad Burns, and Virginia Havercamp. Maynard Eckhardt, Bettie Ross, Normarie Doerfer, Ethel Hopkins, Victor Finkle, Jean Smith, and Jackie Kincaid looked on as interested spectators.

Musky Thespians had fun in many different ways . . . Bob Brawner rearranged the color wheel on the spotlight for another scene . . . Audrey Hetzler modeled a large Gay Nineties hat, while Martha Kemper hunted for another one from the costume crew's collection to try on herself . . . Alice Eis prepared to make up Bradford Burns for his role in a Musky play, and Bonnie Willits arranged Bettie Lou Ross's hair . . . Marcia Wagner put the finishing touches on Victor Finkle's make-up. Victor was there, even though only the top of his head shows.



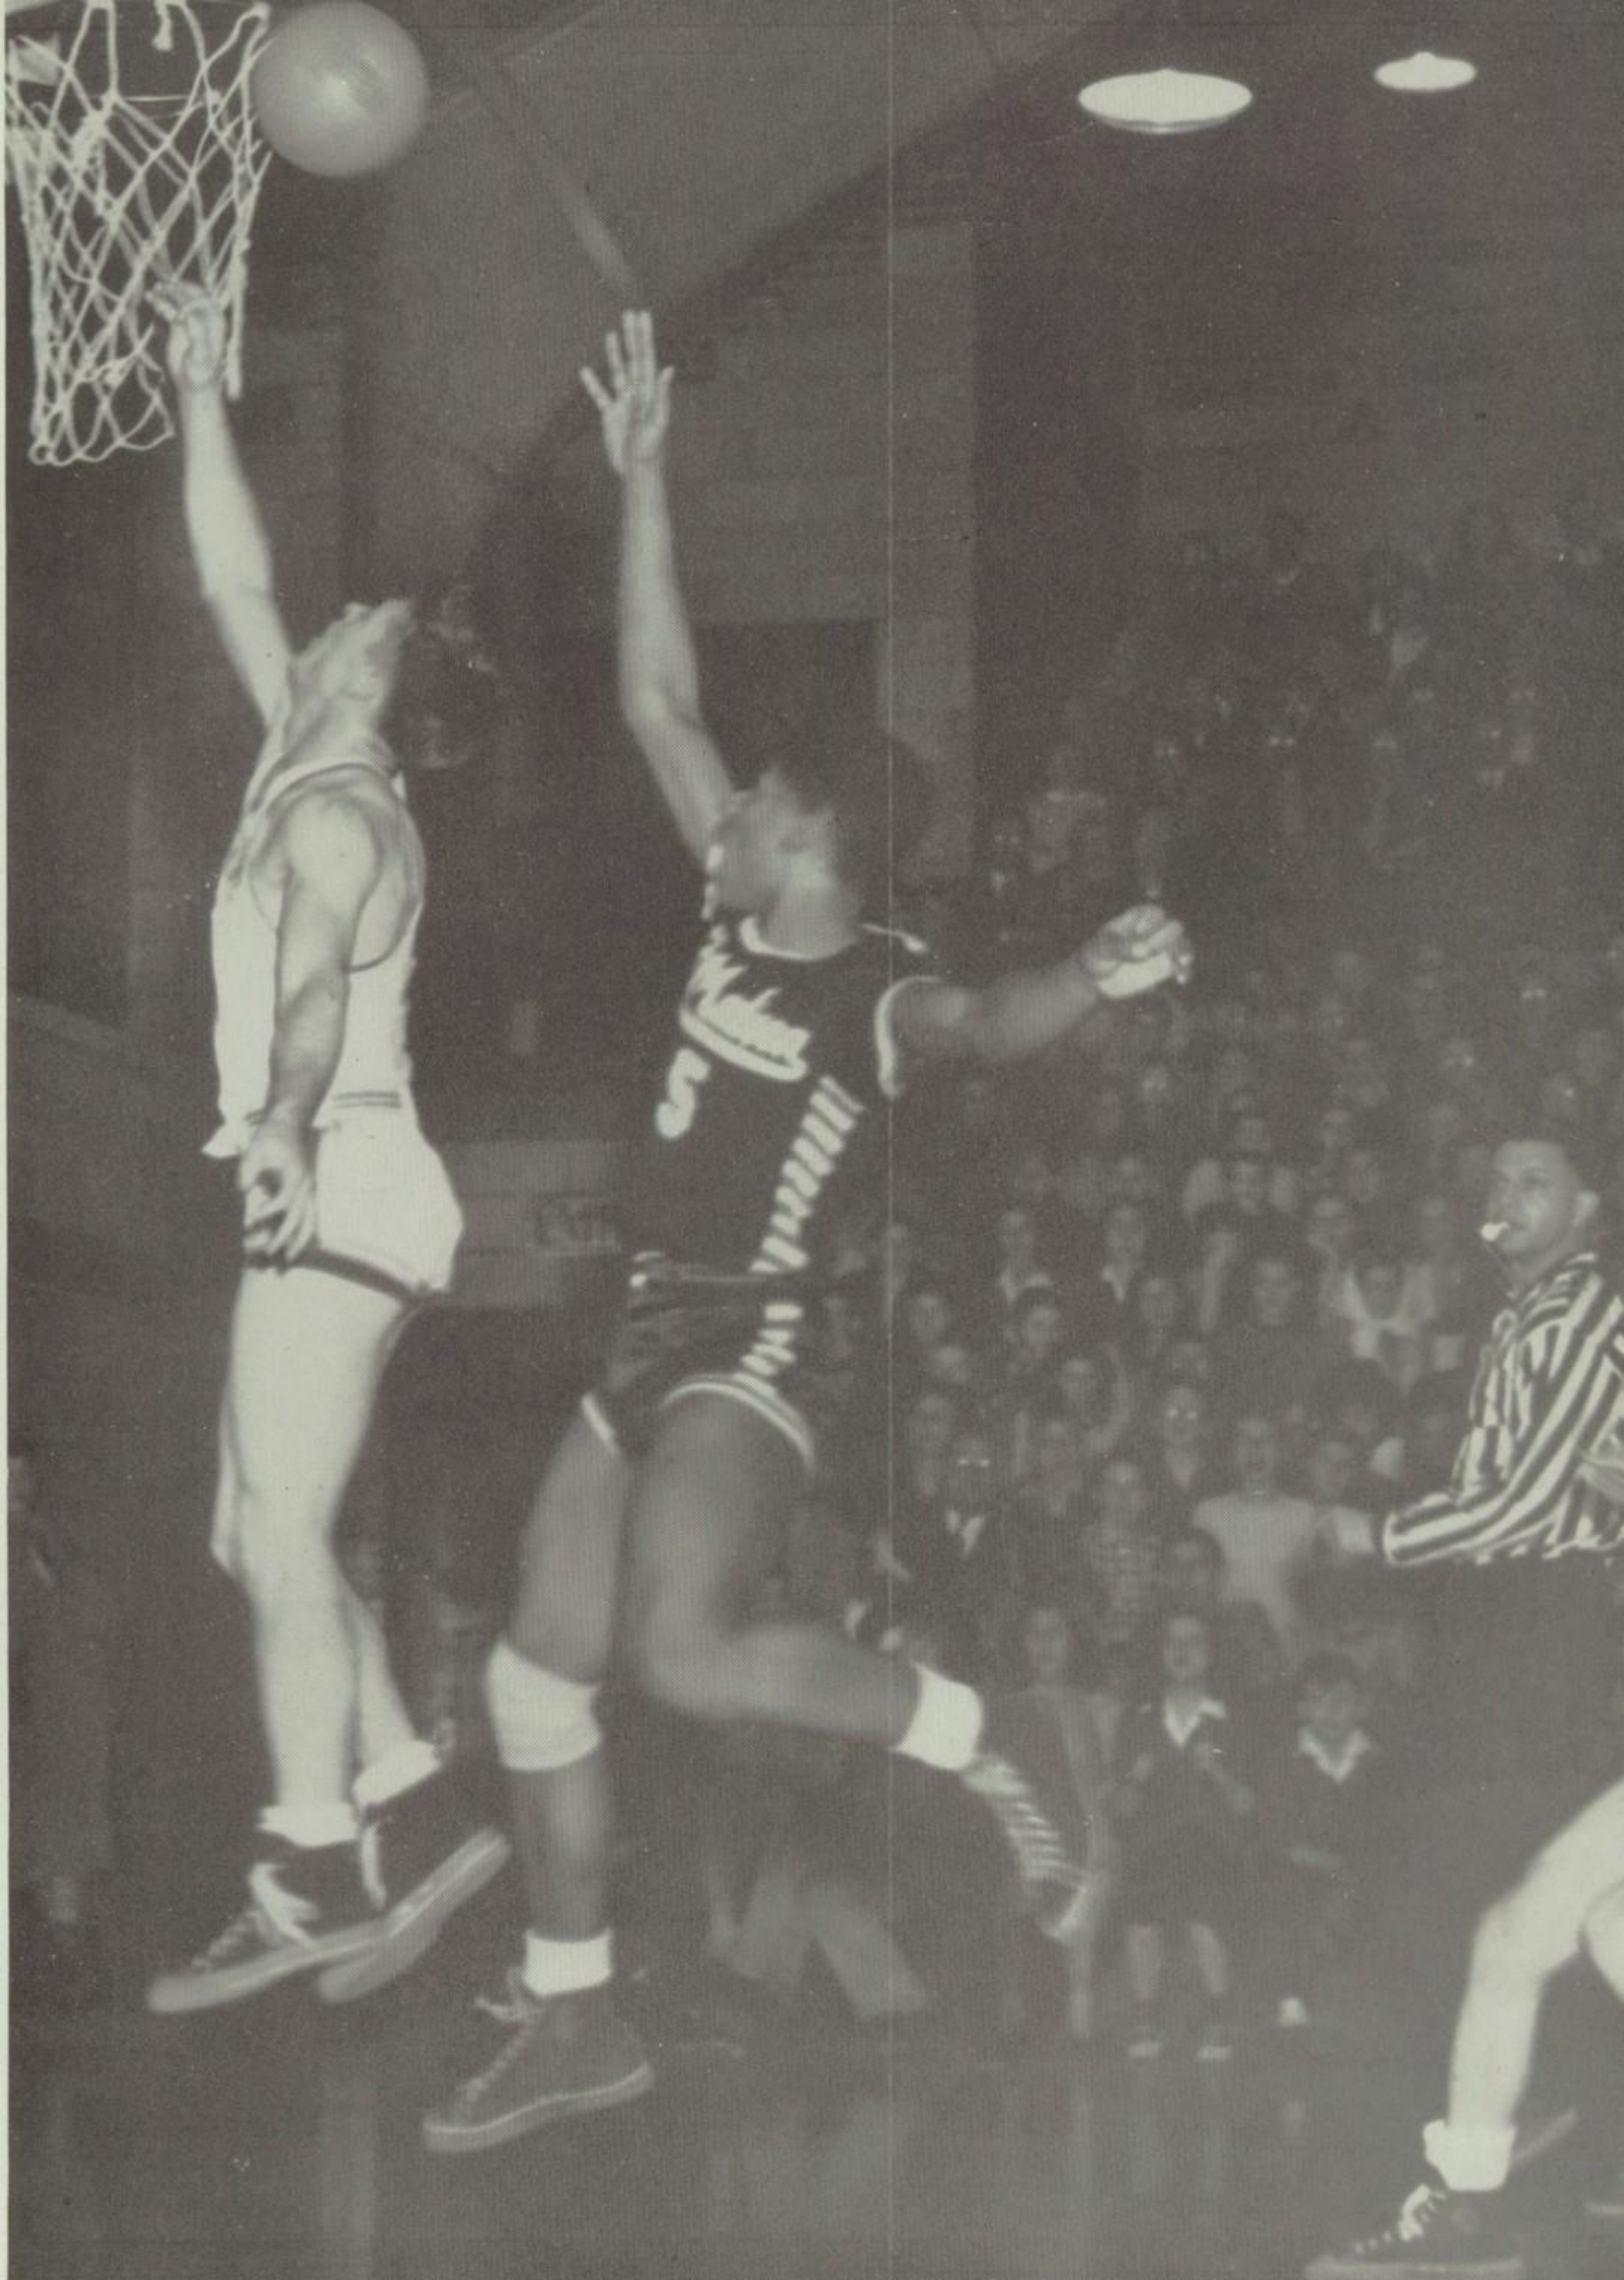
Even musical instruments can provide fun, as these musicians from the Musky band discovered . . . Gene Baillie took life easy while sliding away on his trombone . . . A sour note issuing from Harry Alderman's clarinet caused Jacque Cook to cover her ears in self-defense . . . Don Marine and Bob Jones illustrated the long and short of it when Don stretched high on his tip-toes to measure Bob's height . . . The latest method in drum playing was demonstrated by Billy Jacobs while Jerry Newton obligingly held the drum on his head. Musky crowds are familiar with the snappy drumming of both these boys.

Members of Musky activity groups could always be found having fun . . . Genevieve Thede spent a great deal of time practicing on the organ in the auditorium to prepare the music she played for morning devotions . . . Marian Bloom took time out from her reading to pop the big bubble Mary Dawson had succeeded in making with her bubble gum . . . Charles Sabbath, Bob Toussaint, John Sabbath, and Melvin Buster stopped their crooning long enough to listen to their talented accompanist, Kathryn Klein, play a peppy piece on the piano. Kathy accompanied this group in numerous public appearances.

Speech participants were always having fun . . . Ronald Brookhart turned Tom Brenneman and admired a new bonnet . . . Loren Goss, with the aid of Jim McKinney, arranged a new hair-do for Marilyn Doerfer . . . Brad Burns, George Webster, and Dick Stanley were amazed at the articles in Joan Borgstadt's purse.

Cokes, flashbulbs, rulers, copy pages meant yearbook time . . . Sallie Stark and Bob Evans argued over a layout and Thelma Sorrells worked on copy . . . Dale Schreurs prepared for game sales . . . Tommy Ogilvie, Marilyn Phelps, Francene Glatstein, Donna O'Brien, and Beverly Borgstadt pulled taffy for the gang.

These action shots portray the fight that the Muskies exhibited in their games. On this page, Kenny Butch McCleary, the Muskies' all-conference forward and leading scorer, shot a jump shot to add two points to the 50–28 Musky victory at Fairfield. Ted Hahn, left, blocked for Butch as Leland Crew, an all-conference guard choice, attempted to block the shot. On the opposite page, Kenny Sturms, Musky captain and all-conference guard, drove in ahead of Alfie Cartmill of Fort Madison to score an easy bucket in the game here. The Muskies won 43–22.



The Purple and Gold cagers provided thrills in every game. On this page, Ted Hahn, 7, went up for a shot against Davenport in the season's opener, which the Muskies lost 33–23. Roger Diercks, 11, and Lugene Dietz, 17, of the Blue Devils, and Kenny McCleary, 14, anxiously awaited a rebound. On the opposite page, in the upper picture, Bob Jones, 11, tipped one up against the Burlington Grayhounds. Other Muskies were Bob Herwig, 5, and Butch McCleary, 14. In the lower picture, Jerry Phelps drove under the basket at Burlington. The Grayhounds won 36–31.

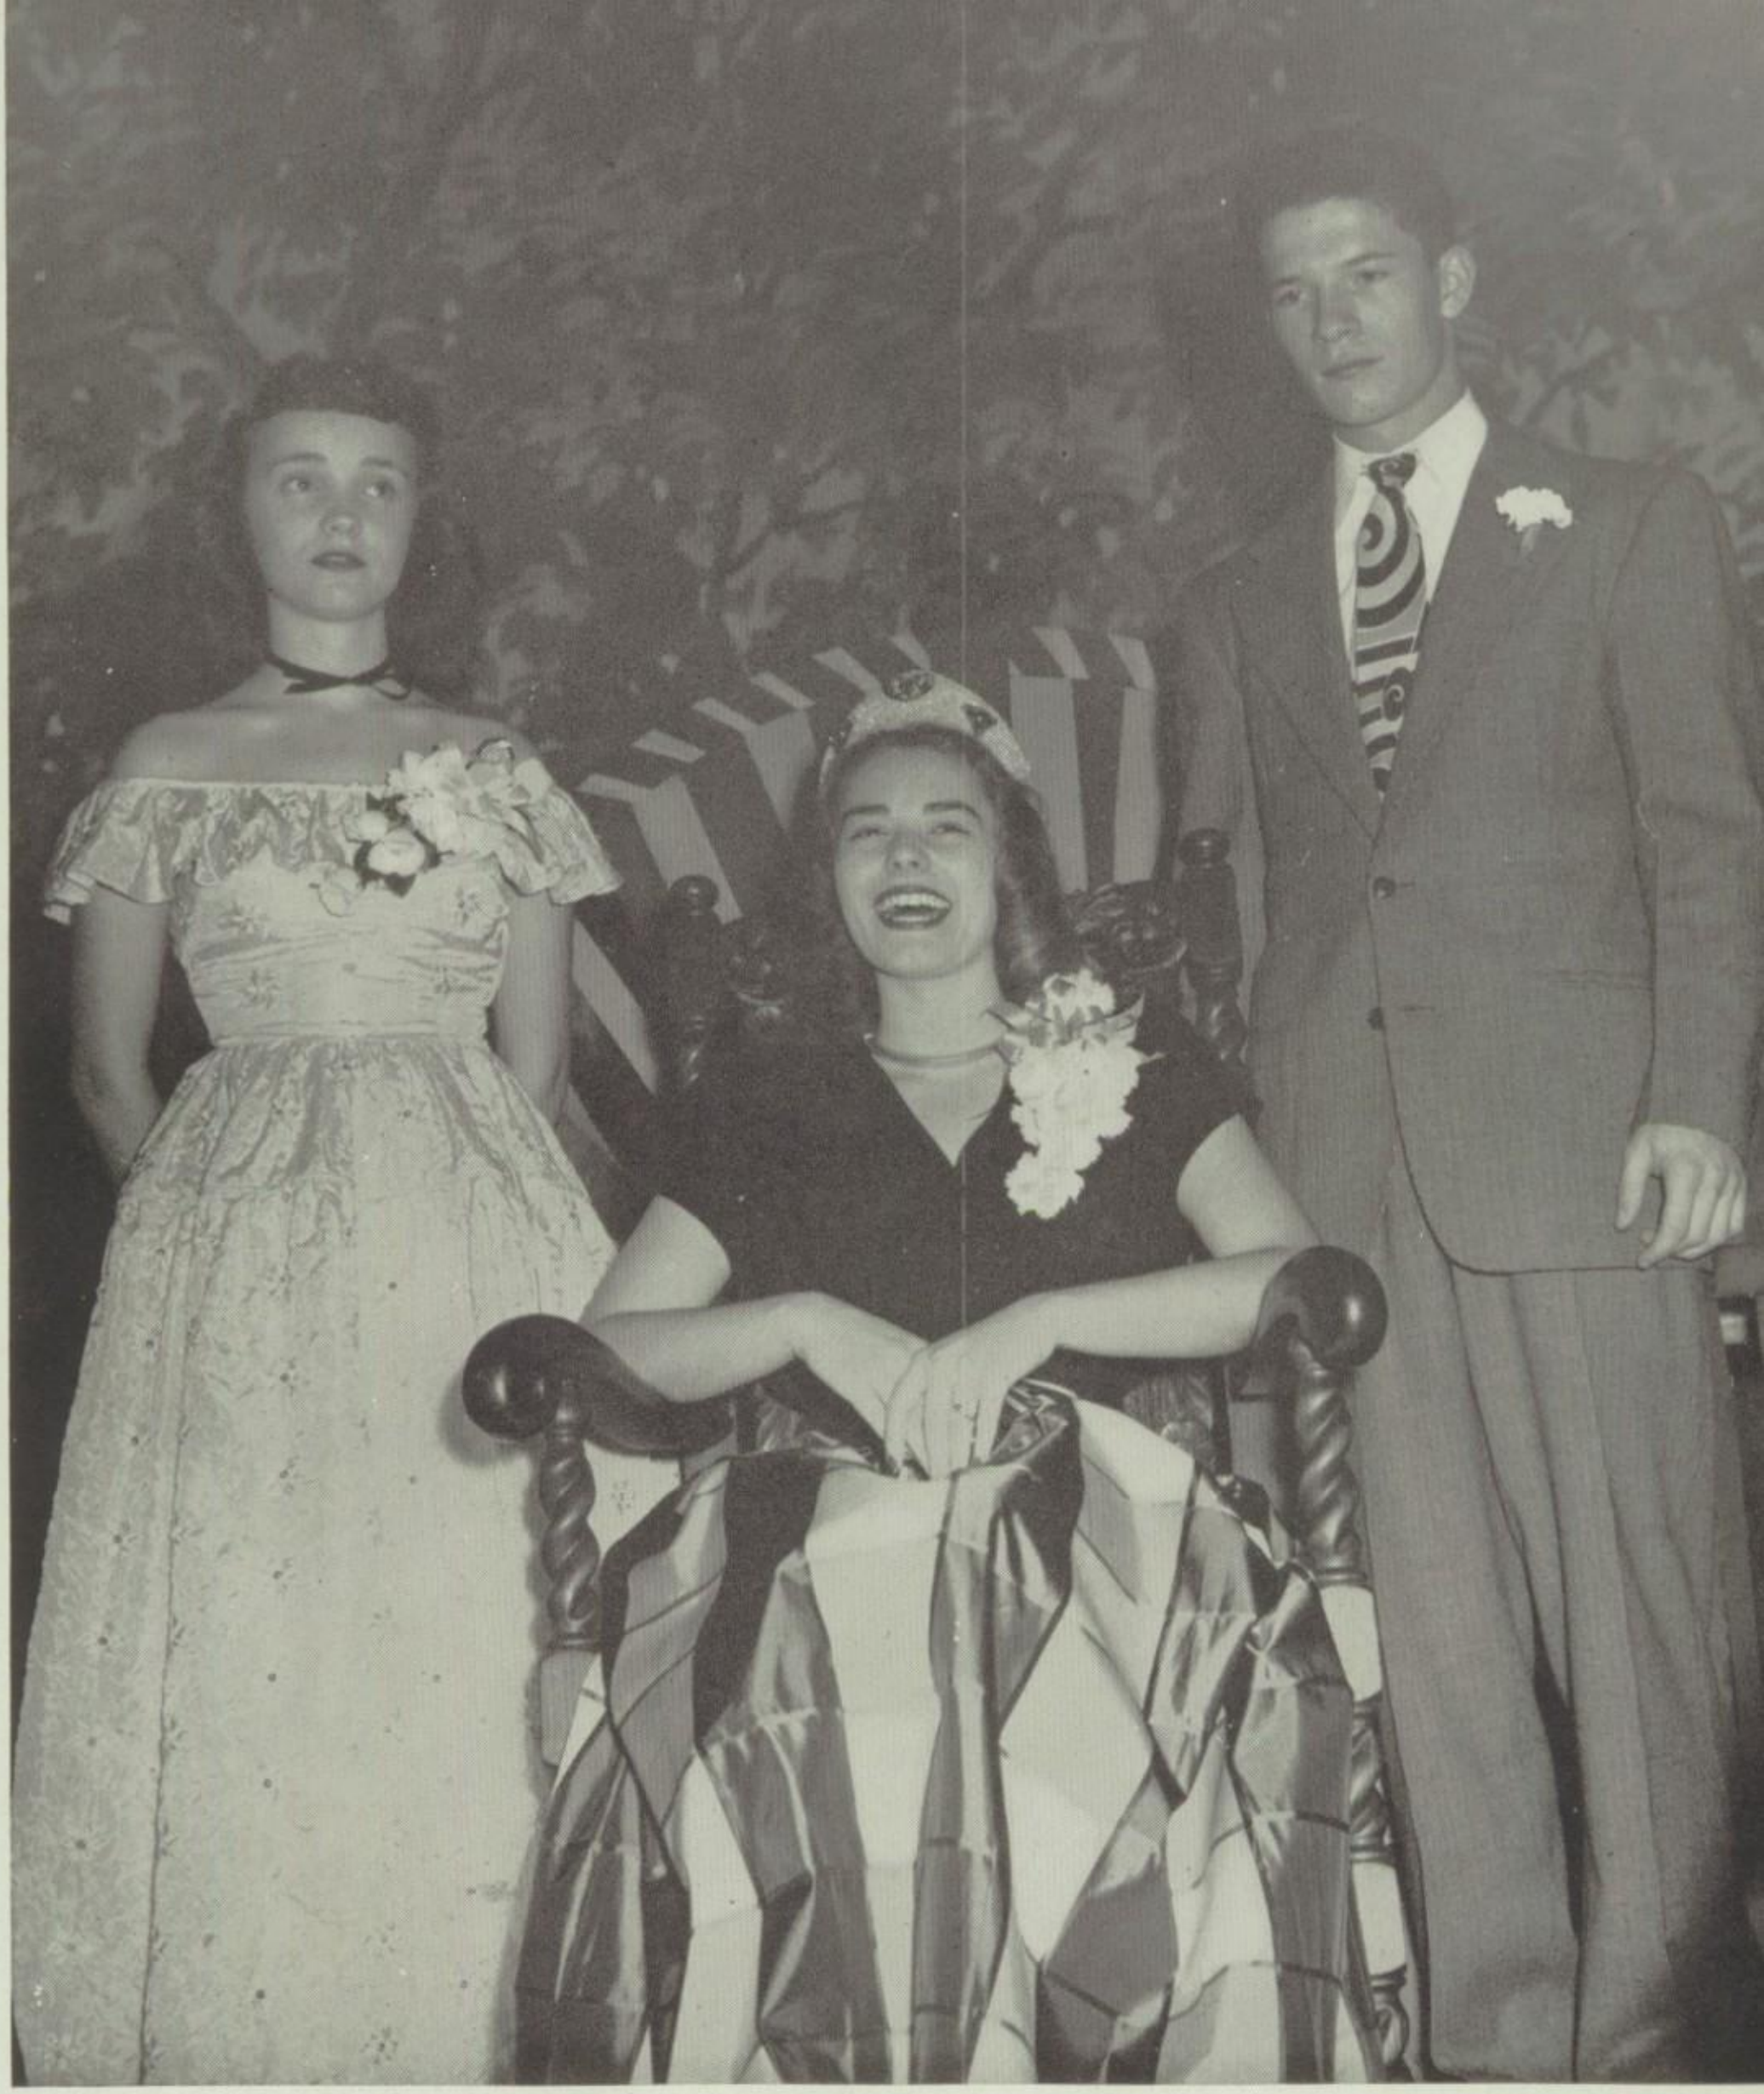
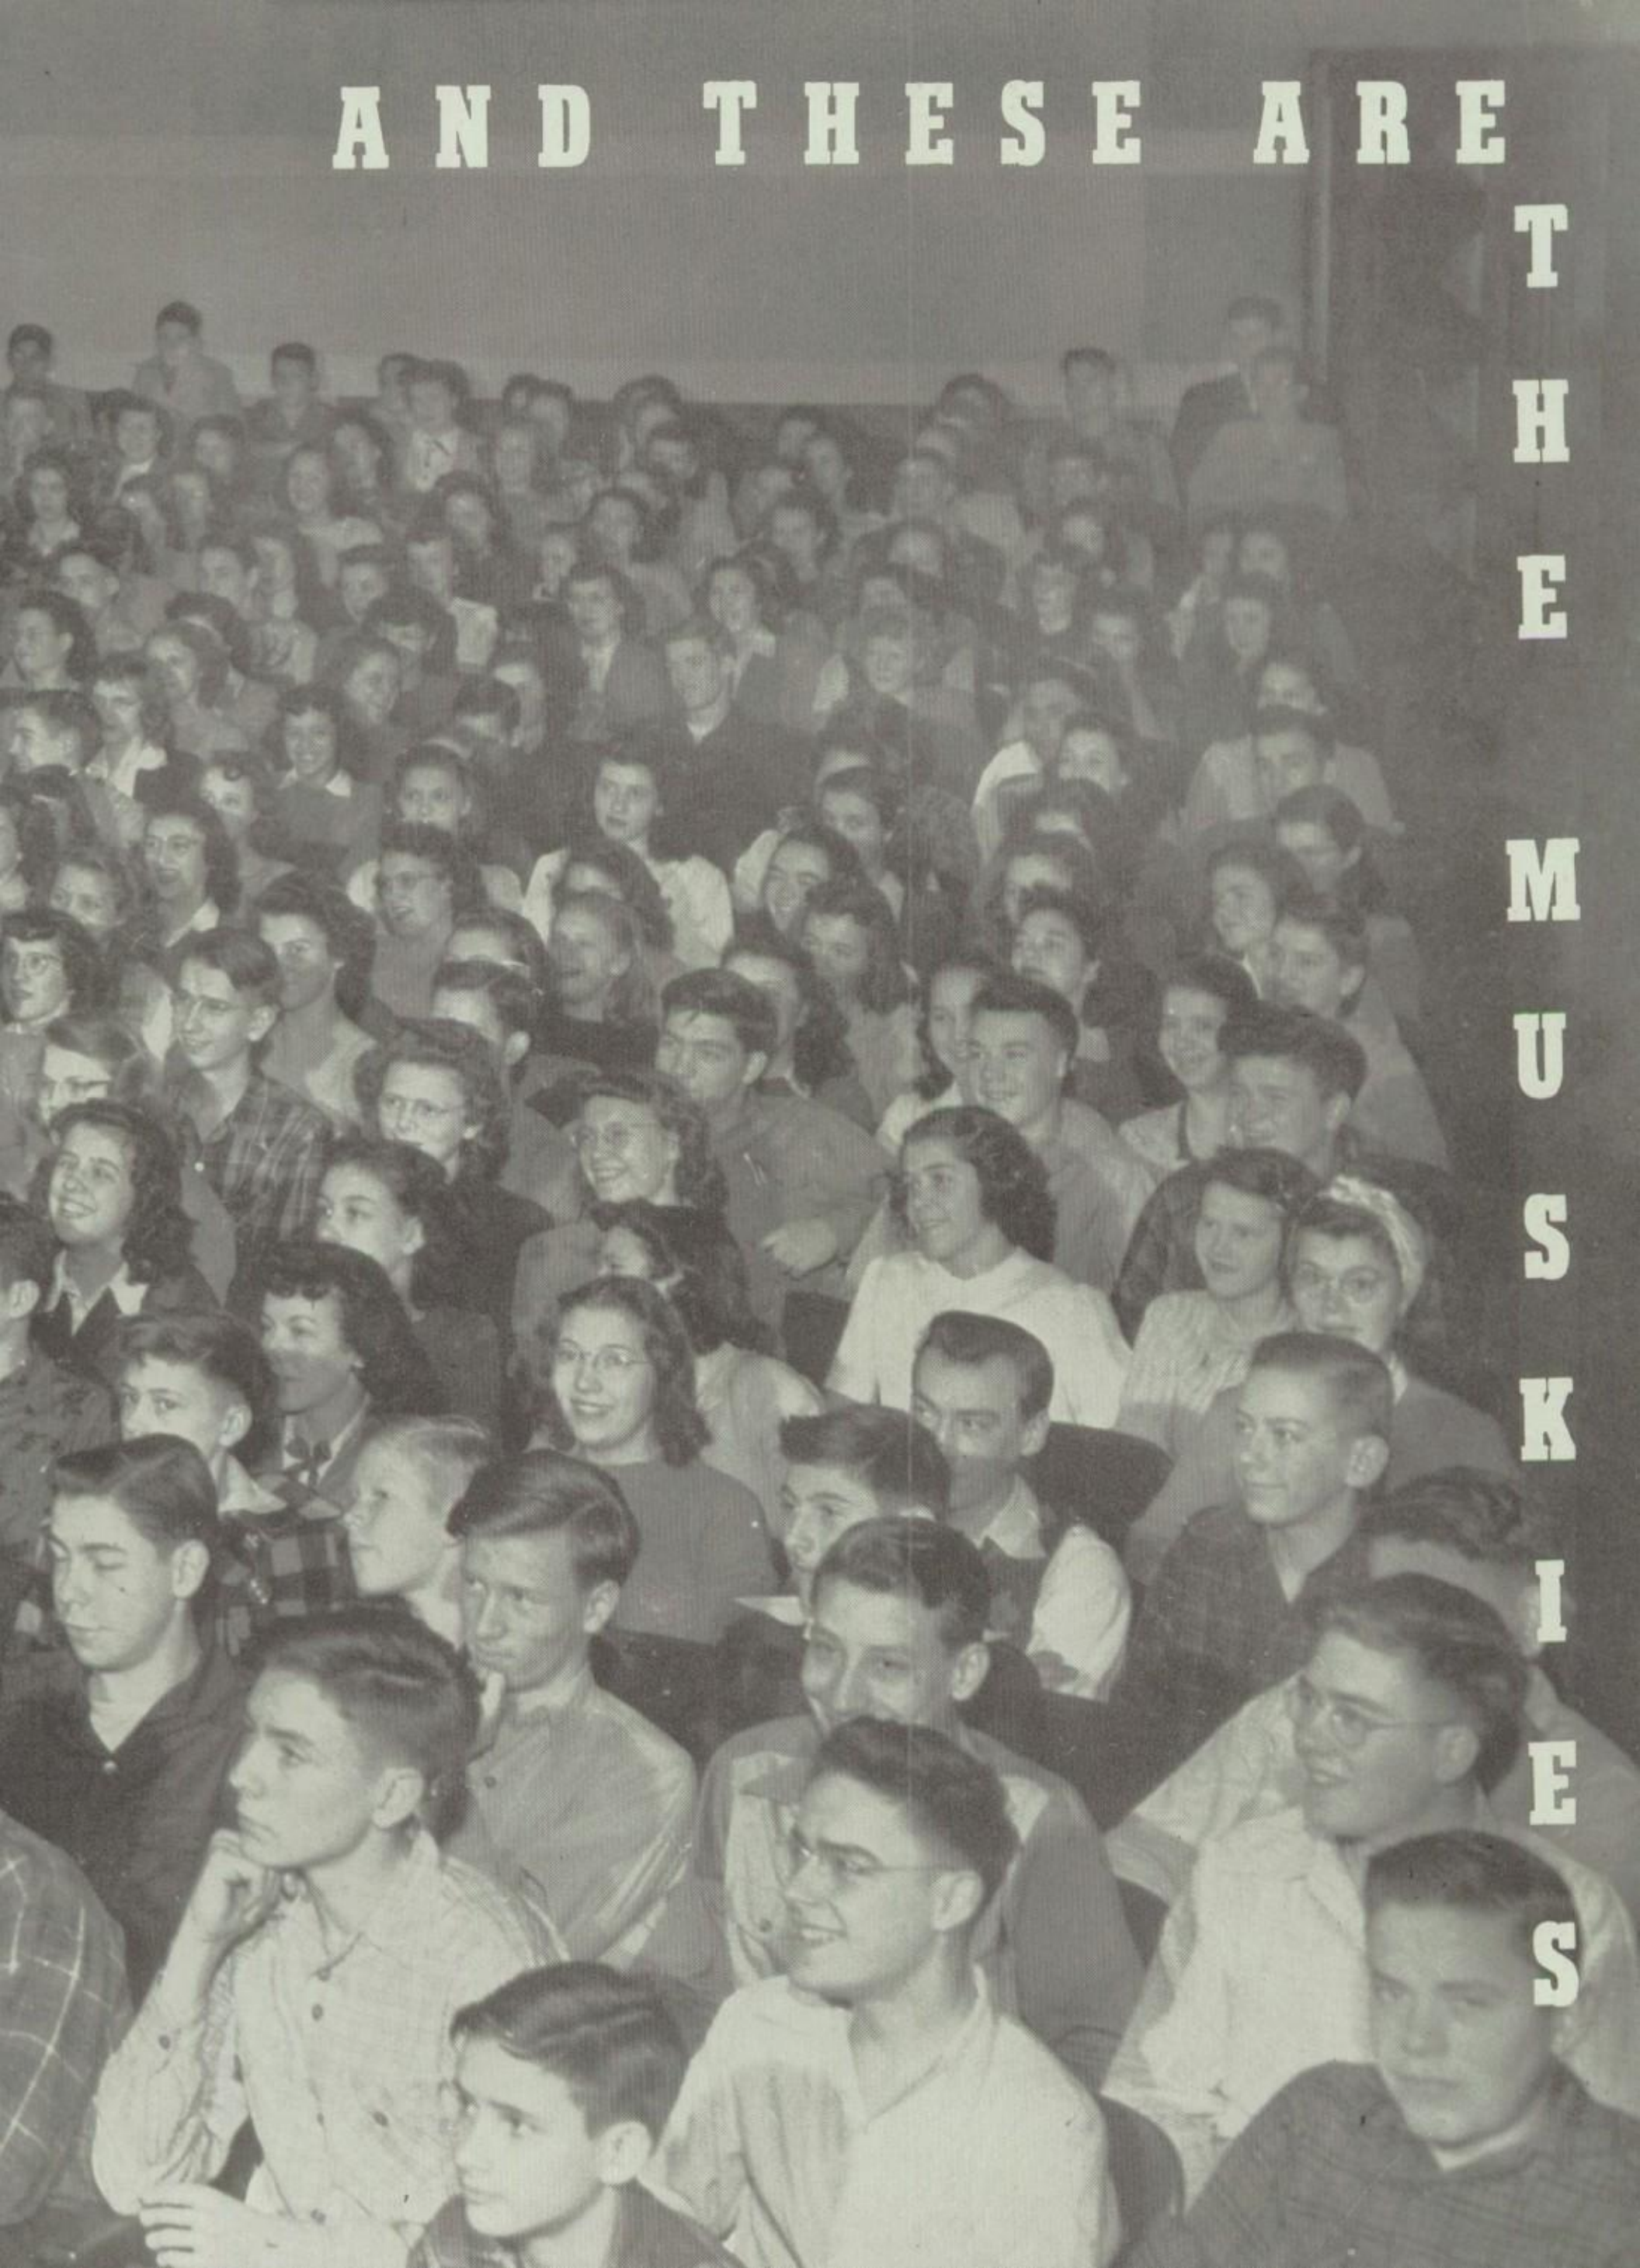
Although Musky victories in the football season were few, the action was fast and furious. On this page, Allen Messenger sprinted to catch Jerry Franklin, after the Burlington captain had snagged a pass for a sizeable gain. The Muskies lost this ball game 13–6. On the opposite page, Bill Johnson, left, Musky fullback, and Dick Bunn, Purple and Gold tackle, put the clamps on Jack McKinney, St. Ambrose speedster. This action took place in the season's opener at Heinz Field. The Muskies lost 12–2. This game was the first contest played on the new field.

Among the Muskies at a Fun Nite dance were Shirley Walker, Kenneth Phelps, Mary Dawson, Jim Gundrum, Evelyn Hoopes, Dave Kelley, Jackie Kincaid, Gene Mueller, Jerry Newton, Marjorie Lewis, Marian Bloom, Jim Torrence, Jerry Boulund, Mary Ann Johnson, Brad Burns, and Betty Russell.



Jackie Kincaid, 1947 Homecoming Queen, sat on her throne of honor at the Homecoming dance. Standing beside her were her escort, Kenny Sturms, and Joan Sywassink, 1946 queen, who crowned the new queen. The queen's attendants were Lorraine Kelley, Joan Clark, Betty Drumm, and Marilyn Nesper.

AND THESE ARE THE MUSKIES



Representative Senior Boy . . .

Earl Cochran, representative senior boy, left his trail behind him by writing his name in the snow. Earl also left behind him an enviable record in football and track.

. . . Representative Senior Girl

Lorraine Kelley, representative senior girl, had fun in the snow as she placed a coal nose on her snowman. Lorraine was prominent in band, chorus, and AURORAN.

Salutatorian and Valedictorian . . .

Kathryn Klein, salutatorian with a 3.75 average, and Lorraine Kelley, valedictorian with a 3.89 average, braved the brisk winter air to engage in a fast and furious snowball fight.

Vernon, Iowa . . . Comment—"Students should realize the importance of college preparation and get as much from their courses as they can. A person can't go through life on someone else's knowledge."

RAYMOND E. MOOMEY . . . Brown hair, blue eyes, ready smile, tall, slender . . . Favorite Color—Blue . . . Hobbies—Frequent conversations with his buddies at his locker, forming friendships with good looking blondes . . . Favorite Pastime—Sleeping . . . Ambition—To retire to a life of ease by the time he is thirty . . . Comment—"More people should save money for security in the future. By saving and investing our money we might help to avoid inflation."

DON MYSER . . . Brown hair, snappy brown eyes, pleasant . . . Activities—Chorus, track, Auroran . . . Ambition—To be married and well settled in a good occupation by the time he is thirty . . . Comment—"My idea of the greatest need for college preparation is a definite and efficient manner of study. If graduates hang onto this procedure and learn to concentrate and apply themselves to study, they will have taken a step toward college preparation."

DAWN NICOLAY . . . Light brown hair, blue eyes, talkative . . . Favorite Color—Blue . . . Hobbies—Visiting with various persons and making new acquaintances . . . Ambitions—To take a trip to New York, buy a hat at an exclusive Fifth Avenue shop, and see Guy Lombardo in person . . . Activity—Future Homemakers of America . . . Comment—"Some people don't like the 'new look', but I think it is strictly okay. The styles are just what I need."

BOB MILLER . . . Brown hair, brown eyes, a husky Musky . . . Hobby—Mechanical work . . . Favorite Pastime—Roller skating . . . Ambition—To be in California with a good, paying job and a modern car before he reaches the age of thirty . . . Activity—Future Farmers of America . . . Comments—"My idea of the perfect wife is one who will be true" . . . Office Workers . . .

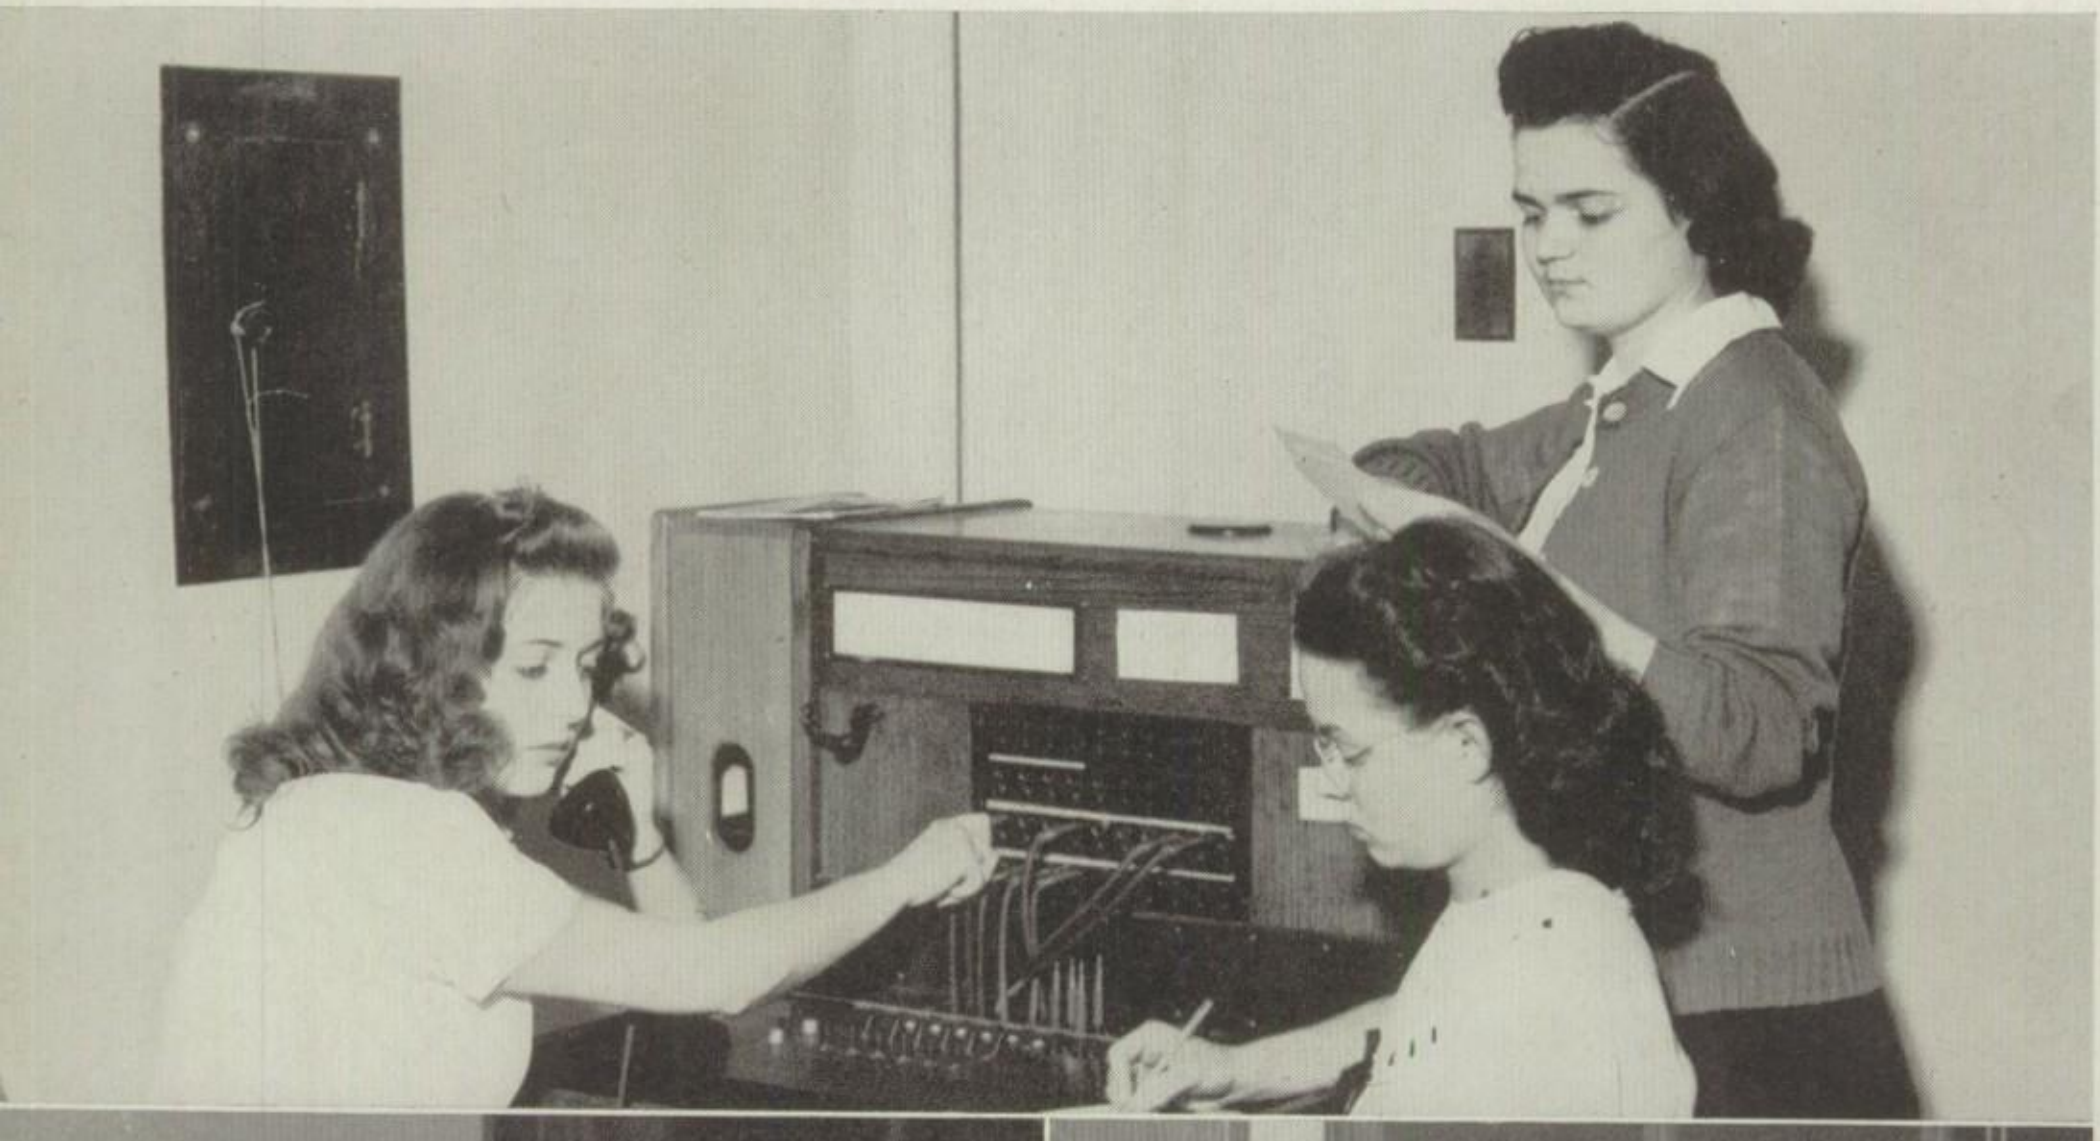
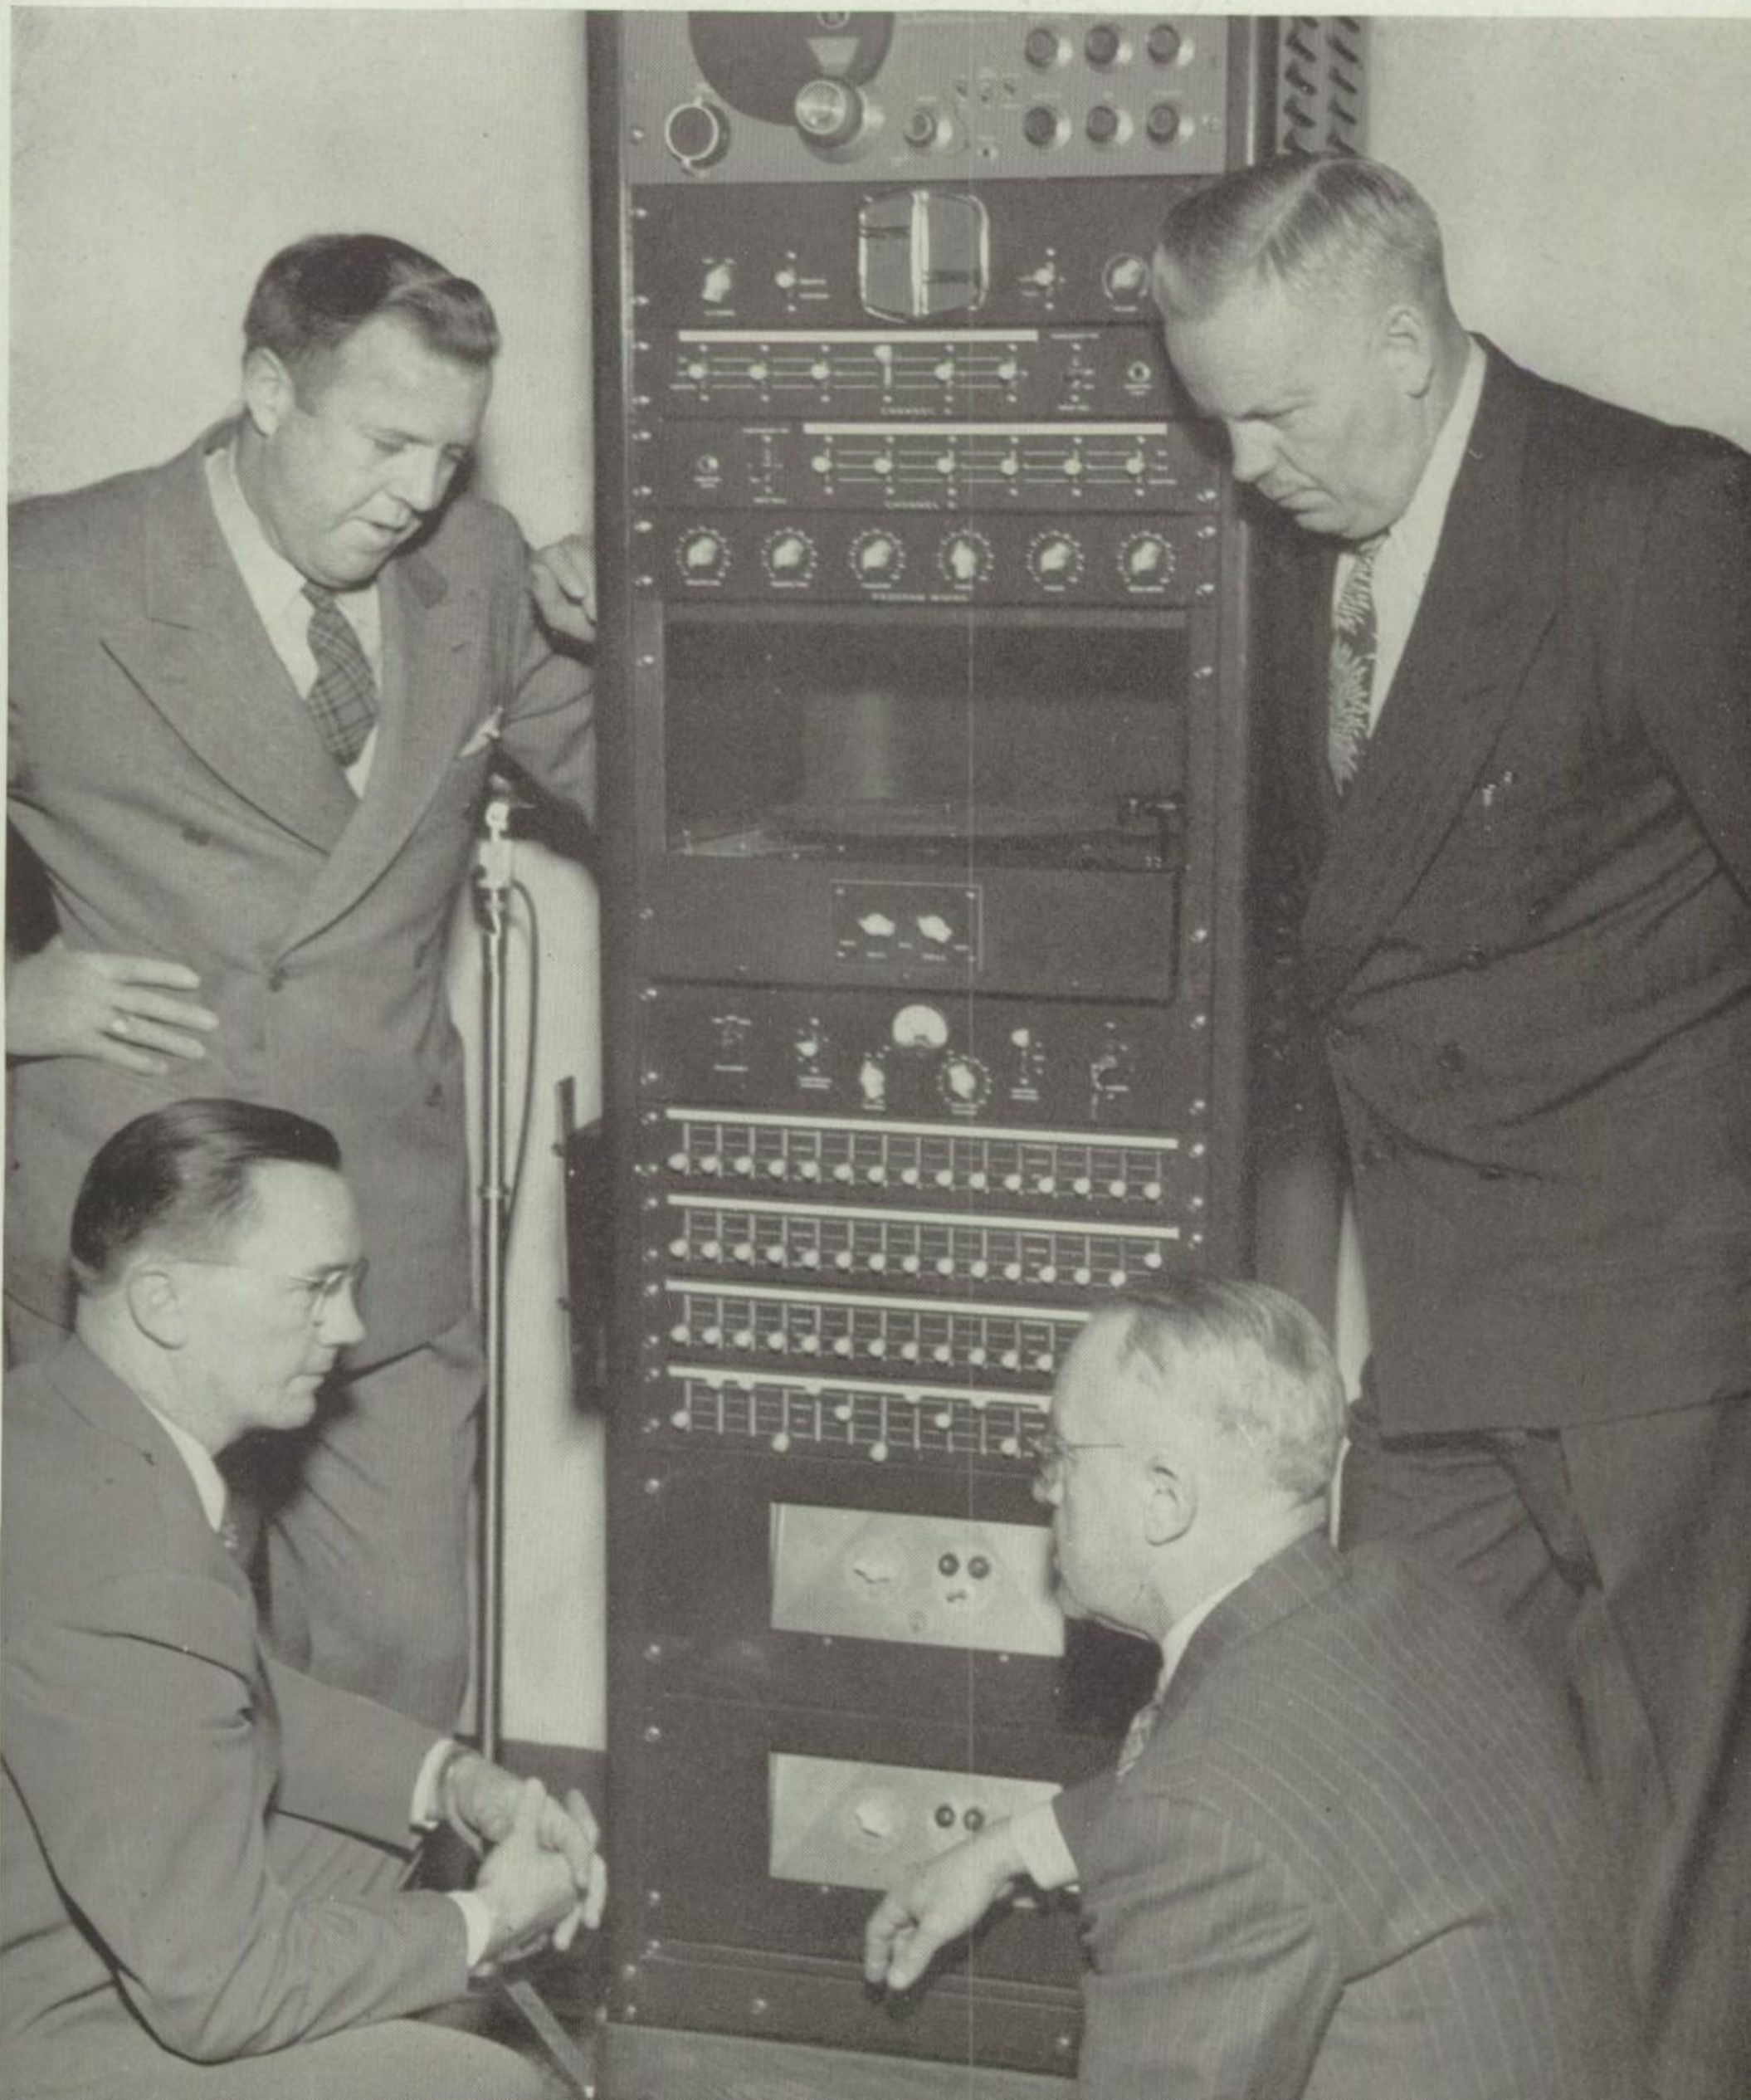
Marilyn Dilley answered the phone while Freda Fuller and Clara Wilder waited to deliver the messages . . . Lorna Belter checked report cards . . . Mrs. Marie Ruthenberg, office secretary, examined her attendance chart to make sure Muskies weren't having their fun when they should be in a classroom making some teacher's life interesting.



. . . Administrators

Marinus Jensen, assistant principal, and A. A. Johnson, superintendent of schools, looked on as Fred Messenger, principal, explained the new public address system to Julian Havercamp, president of the Board of Education. The new system replaced the one which caught fire last year and provided a realistic fire drill for Muskies.



Faculty members had fun, too . . . Miss Veda Cornick fringed a new scarf and Miss Caroline Liebbe and Miss Louisa Jericho knitted away on a sweater and a sock . . . Ted Allen examined a stuffed duck in the biology room . . . Other knitters were Miss Mary Culhane, Miss Bonnie White, Miss Margaret Proehl, and Miss Marjorie Owen.

Miss Eula Downer, Miss June Lingo, and Miss Elizabeth Smith examined projects of the sophomore literature classes . . . Max Collins prepared for an afternoon of sports activity . . . Max Smith displayed the results of his hobby . . . Miss Edith Stocker watched while Miss Hetty Kemble scrutinized a silver Mexican pitcher.

Future Farmers Lead Merry Lives in School

Musky members of Future Farmers of America enjoyed varied activities during the year under the leadership of Lindley B. Hoopes. Outstanding events on their schedule were bus trips to the Iowa State Fair at Des Moines and the Waterloo Dairy Cattle Congress. The group also sent delegates to the State F. F. A. Convention on May 7 and 8.

Several members brought honor to their chapter. Richard Howard received the Corn Growers' Trophy for his achievement in the farm crops class. The F. F. A. Exhibition Trophy for winning the highest number of points at the F. F. A. Grain Show went to Floyd Ziegenhorn. Having a litter of ten pigs weighing 2470 pounds at six months enabled Ralph Buster to win the Ton Litter Trophy. Billy Hoben won a purebred heifer by winning a judging contest held at Mt. Pleasant, in which seventy-one 4-H and F. F. A. boys competed. The boys also planned entries for the district and state contests.

The Muscatine F. F. A. chapter won the Little Four F. F. A. Basketball Tournament held at West Liberty. It is an annual affair whose participants include Tipton, West Branch, West Liberty, and Muscatine.

Greenhands initiated into the Chapter of the Future Farmers of America enter the first of the degrees of the organization. In order to qualify for a Greenhand, a boy must be regularly enrolled in a class in vocational agriculture and have satisfactory and acceptable means for a program of supervised farming. The national organization is made up of four degrees, which are the Greenhands, Chapter Farmer, State Farmer, and the American Farmer.

Greenhands and the regular F. F. A. members joined together to honor their parents at a special Dad's Night and the F. F. A. annual parents' banquet.

By maintaining a checkroom at the Musky basketball games, F. F. A. boys secured some necessary funds to carry on recreational activities. Fun came into the F. F. A. limelight when the members sponsored hayrack rides and a roller skating party and also when they entered teams in the Y. M. C. A. Basketball League tournaments.

Officers for the year were Duane Sywassink, Billy Hoben, presidents; Billy Hoben, Victor Ziegenhorn, vice-presidents; Vernon Toyne, Virgil Eichelberger, secretaries; Willis Thieker, Pete Umlandt, treasurers; Danny Welk, Merle Gifford, reporters; and Floyd Ziegenhorn, David Watson, sergeants at arms.

F. H. A. Girls Discuss Careers, Good Grooming

The girls in the homemaking department of M. H. S. have their own organization, Future Homemakers of America. The club colors are red and white, and the flower is the red rose. The girls expressed their motto, "Toward New Horizons," in their theme for the first semester—careers. The second semester theme was grooming, posture, and poise.

The activities for the year included interesting programs, work, and social events. On one of the programs Miss Eula Downer, dean of girls, talked about the possibilities for a college career. As a service project the F. H. A. girls packed and sent ten boxes of clothing to needy persons in Europe. On the social calendar there were a Christmas party in December and a picnic honoring senior members in May.

Miss Evelyn Schultz, Miss Mary Bielefeld, and Mrs. Eleanor Havercamp served as advisers for the organization's activities.

F. H. A. Select Candidates for King, Queen

In November the Future Homemakers selected candidates for a school-wide election of Homemaking King and Queen. As the climax of the Fun Festival, the girls crowned the students elected for the honor, Bob James and Barbara Huber. The king and queen then reigned over the dance in Jefferson Gym. Another feature of the Fun Festival was "Cotton Blossom Follies," sponsored by the dramatics and music departments.

Student Librarians Have Fun While They Learn

There were fifteen girls who had fun being library assistants this year. Anyone in Muscatine High School who wished to help in the library could do so. A desire to be of service and to learn a skill was all that was necessary. Library assistants helped by taking attendance, making out corridor permits, checking books in and out, making lists of overdue books, pasting pockets and "Date Due" slips in new books, mending worn books, caring for newspapers and magazines, "reading" the shelves (that is, checking to see that the books were in the right order and straightening them to give a neat appearance to the shelves), making posters for the book displays, compiling bibliographies for teachers, typing, running errands, and doing hundreds of small jobs that came under the head of "miscellaneous."

Every library assistant learned something about cataloging, filing, book selection and display, classifying, salesmanship, and human nature. Some of them studied library science enough so that they will always be "at home" in any library.

There was never any "have to" about this work. Mrs. Jeanne Jahnke, Musky librarian, was in charge of the group. Her motto was "Your studies, first; library work, second." Often a girl would say, "I need to study this period." She was always free to do so. When she came with "I want to work this period," there was always work for her to do.

Curia Regia Has Tea for Former Members

Curia Regia meant more fun for Latin students as the second semester Latin students joined this organization and studied Roman life. Curia Regia is distinguished in that it is the oldest club in M. H. S. and one of the most active. A great deal of planning goes into each meeting in order to make it as worthwhile as possible.

Topping the list of activities for Latin club members was a tea given in the social room for all of the upperclassmen who were former members of the club. The club invited Mrs. F. L. Galbraith, who talked about a recent trip to Europe and in particular told of the experiences that were of interest to Latin students. For another special program at the regular meeting in January, Ann Hoopes told of a recent trip to Florida and showed a number of pictures taken there.

The purely social activities included two picnics. The club had the first one in the fall for the second-year students and the second one in the spring for all members.

First semester officers were Pat Beisner, president; Francene Glatstein, vice-president; Ann Hoopes, secretary; and Florence Easterday, treasurer. Wielding the gavel for the second semester was Brad Burns. Neil Fitzmorris was vice-president, with JoAnn Bloom as secretary and Phil Houston as treasurer. Miss H. Margaret Kemble was adviser for the club.

Thespians Complete Active Year of Drama

Members of the M. H. S. chapter of the National Thespian Dramatic Honor Society found many ways throughout the year of furthering their purpose, "to promote interest in dramatics." Under the direction of Miss June Lingo and Miss H. Margaret Kemble, the Thespians were busy sponsoring noon plays, producing the "Cotton Blossom Follies" Fun Festival in cooperation with the music department, furnishing plays for community entertainment, and entering a play in the state contest.

In an exchange of plays with the Iowa City dramatics club, the Muscatine troupe presented the two plays, "Suppressed Desires" and "I'll Eat My Hat." The all-school play was "A Credit to the Family," and the senior class play was "The Divine Flora." The club participated in National Drama Week by giving a radio broadcast in connection with Lincoln's birthday and by attending the West Liberty Play Production Festival. They also heard a talk on puppets by Mrs. Ethel Hanley. The club received honorable mention from the national organization for its activities during Drama Week.

The officers for the first semester were Brad Burns, president; Billy Jacobs, vice-president; Martha Kemper, secretary; and Alice Eis, treasurer. Serving for the second semester were Bob Brawner, president; Bonnie Willets, vice-president; Dolores Duncan, secretary; and Pat Zeug, treasurer.

N. F. L. Members Bring Honors to Musky High

Participation in speech work means the acquisition of N. F. L. points. Twenty of these are required to gain membership in the organization for speech students, the National Forensic League.

The members of N. F. L. competed in varied tournaments throughout the year and brought honors to M. H. S. The A Squad, composed of Doris Crow, Bob Evans, Loren Goss, George Webster, Joe Petty, and Jim McKinney, returned home from the annual Coe College Invitational Tournament at Cedar Rapids ranked as first. As individuals, all the debaters won superior or excellent. Crow, Evans, McKinney, and Goss received superior ratings, and Webster and Petty received excellent ratings. The debaters also won the Burlington Invitational and the district tourney for the I. H. S. F. L. From this district Bob Evans, Stanley Lawrence, and Jerry Miller also qualified for the state final competition held at the University of Iowa at Iowa City on April 1, 2, and 3.

The group met regularly for bi-weekly meetings. The officers in charge were Loren Goss, president; Bob Evans, vice-president; Doris Crow, secretary; and Jim McKinney, treasurer.

Miss Bonnie White coached all speech work.

Auroran Staff Eat Hamburgers, Write Copy

Night sessions and Lady's cold coffee characterized work on the yearbook for members of the AURORAN staff. Chatter and laughter echoed in the halls and made 120 and 122 a test for powers of concentration. But since the deadline for yearbook copy was April first, staff members worked many hours outside of school time. Evening lunches of hamburgers and milk or cokes became a regular thing.

Work on the bi-weekly meant a dash to get the copy written, typed, and copyread in order to make a deadline. More than one editor "tore his hair" when copy, all finished, was misplaced or just plain disappeared.

Sallie Stark, with Thelma Sorrells as her senior assistant, directed this year's book work. Beverly Borgstadt, assisted by Helen Richman, managed the newspaper publication.

Dale Schreurs was business manager of both publications. Gene Mueller was in charge of advertising for the yearbook, and Francene Glatstein for the bi-weekly. Page editors were Marilyn Phelps, news; Dick Stanley, editorial; Donna O'Brien, feature; and Bob Evans, sports.

Quill and Scroll Represents Top Achievement

Membership in Quill and Scroll means outstanding achievement. In order to qualify for selection for this society the student must be a junior, be in the upper third scholastically, do outstanding work in some phase of journalistic or creative endeavor, and be recommended by the adviser and approved by the national executive.

Of the seven new members who qualified for membership in Quill and Scroll six were seniors. Bob Evans was the only former member, having qualified in his junior year. Bob was sports editor of the yearbook and bi-weekly in his junior and senior years. Sallie Stark received this honor as a senior after four years of AURORAN work. Sal's outstanding assignments were editor-in-chief of the bi-weekly in her junior year and chief editor of the yearbook as a senior. Thelma Sorrells worked hard as a business manager in her junior year and consequently missed the basketball games supervising game sales. Thelm was assistant editor of the yearbook as a senior. Loren Goss, also a senior member, qualified through his editorial writing and the great amount of yearbook work he did. Lorraine Kelley, another senior member, bore the brunt of 180 senior write-ups and also managed the circulation department. Marilyn Phelps qualified for work done as news editor of the bi-weekly. Beverly Borgstadt, a three-year journalism student, was news editor as a junior and chief editor of the bi-weekly as a senior. Helen Richman, the only junior member, showed her talents as assistant editor of the bi-weekly and turned out a great deal of work on the annual.

First Row: Beverly Borgstadt, Helen Richman, Sallie Stark, Thelma Sorrells. Second Row: Marilyn Phelps, Bob Evans, Loren Goss, Lorraine Kelley.

Hi-Tri, an important part of the Y. W. C. A. program for girls, was a prominent organization to the sophomore, junior, and senior girls of M. H. S. In this popular organization the purpose is to develop the members in the social and personal fields and to contribute service to the community.

The important activities that were a part of the past year's program were collecting food for baskets to be sent to deserving families at Thanksgiving, selling Christmas cards in order to open a youth center in the Y. W. C. A., and sponsoring dances at Fun Nite. The highlight of the Christmas season was the party for under-privileged children.

The officers elected for the first semester were Thelma Sorrells, president; Jackie Kincaid, vice-president; Lorna Belter, secretary; and Angeline Rock, treasurer. Second semester officers were Eileen Duggan, president; Laura Trout, vice-president; Donna Eichelberger, secretary; and Lucille Behrens, treasurer.

Hi-Tri Girls Have Fun at Hen'n Date Parties

The second semester the Hi-Tri girls tried having both a business and a social meeting each month in order to make a more interesting program, and they found the method quite successful. The business meeting was for planning activities, and the social meetings included hen and date parties.

Social highlights for the Hi-Tri girls were picnics and dances. The important event in the fall was a gala picnic at Wild Cat Den state park to which the girls asked dates. The entertainment included hot dogs and strolls along the trails. The group also gathered together around the camp-fire for a song fest. Included in the list of activities for the year were the preparation for a formal and several subsequent postponements of the event. Another festive party was called a "slumber" party, but the activity in no way corresponded to Webster's definition of the word "slumber."

Miss Margaret Proehl, commercial instructor in M. H. S., supervised all organization activities.

Amicae Girls Play Games, Dance at Meetings

In order to distinguish themselves around M. H. S. the freshman girls have their own club. Amicae, a name which means "girl friends." This organization is a part of the Y. W. C. A. program for high school girls.

The girls met the second and fourth Mondays of each month at the Y. W. C. A. The meetings consisted of short business sessions followed by social hours. At these mixers the girls danced to recordings, played ping-pong, and lunched.

The Amicae members baked food and sold it at Batterson's department store and also sponsored a Saturday night dance in the Y. W. gym. The funds raised in this way were used to buy clothes for a girl in M. H. S.

The officers elected to serve the first semester were Shirley Meisky, president; Marilyn Mason, vice-president; Barbara Lewis, secretary; and Beverly Barko, treasurer. Suzanne Stevens headed the club the second semester, with Beverly Barko, vice-president, Loretta Wyckoff, secretary, and Barbara McGrew, treasurer.

Miss Marjorie Owen was the club adviser.

Hi-Y Boys Make Floats, Hear Lectures

The big disappointment of the year for the members of Hi-Y came with the Halloween rains. The boys had prepared a float which they thought was a prize winner, but they didn't get to display their handiwork. However, the club had other activities which were not disappointing. There were several very worthwhile talks on their programs. E. J. Asthalter told interesting facts about coins and coin collecting. The Reverend J. T. Baker, rector of Trinity Church, described life in Hawaii. E. A. Palmer, former secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, discussed the proposed new county hospital.

Other items of interest on the Hi-Y schedule were the play, "I'll Eat My Hat," presented by the dramatics department, and the Hi-Y basketball tournament at Galesburg, Illinois. The boys lost the second game they played.

Officers for the two semesters were Ted Hahn and Earl Cochran, presidents; Earl Cochran and Tom Schultz, vice-presidents; Bob Evans and Loren Goss, secretaries; and Loren Goss and Bob Jones, treasurers. Ben Gallaher, Y. M. C. A. secretary, and Robert Hade, Musky chemistry instructor, were the advisers.

Every day was "play day" for the members of the band pounding it out in the band room sixth period under the direction of Max Smith. On top of this daily rehearsal there were band group lessons once a week for the purpose of bettering individual technique. Mr. Smith's plans for the band being a top ranking group in the marching field during the football season were curtailed by an exceptionally wet fall. However, strains of peppy marches being played by these musicians in their black and red uniforms were an essential part of every home basketball game.

Special programs presented by the band this year included the Christmas and spring concerts. The band also participated in the Little Six Band Festival.

M. H. S. Swing Band Popular With Students

From the student body's point of view, probably the most popular music aggregation was the Musky swing band. Max Smith directed this group and added a solid trumpet to the other eleven instruments. In addition to Mr. Smith, Don McCullough and Max Collins played in the trumpet section. The saxophone players were Bob Jones, Harry Alderman, Don Marine, Jim Torrence, and Louie Grimm. The trombonist was Gene Baillie. The rhythm section consisted of Jim Gundrum, on bass viol; Jerry Newton, on drums; and Jacque Cook, at the piano.

This group provided the music for the annual homecoming dance in Jefferson Gym and for the dances sponsored by the band and chorus after home games. The swing band also played between the acts of plays.

There's Always Something New for Songsters

The high school mixed chorus really went out for music this year. They had a heavy schedule, but they enjoyed singing. Anyone passing the music room on Monday, Wednesday, or Friday was sure to hear good harmony on pieces ranging from "June Is Bustin' Out All Over" to the serious "Adoramus Te."

As a whole group, the chorus made two broadcasts over KWPC. There were numerous other broadcasts, also, when small vocal groups took part. The basketball fans were favored by numbers offered by the chorus between halves at two games. Two of the specialty numbers that were especially liked by the crowds were "Dry Bones" and "Country Style." The band and chorus sponsored two dances jointly in order to raise money for each organization. The chorus used their share to make a trip to other high schools, where they presented special programs. The county festival held in March was another mark on their very busy calendar. Of course, the one event that will linger in the minds of the chorus members for a long time was the Little Six Music Festival, which took place in Ottumwa this year. The chorus also participated in a Palm Sunday program and the Easter sunrise service.

Mixed Chorus Give Musical Comedy, "Tune In"

A musical comedy, "Tune In," was presented in May by the chorus. It concerned a radio program and the sponsor's wife, who thought she should sing on the program, and the difficulties she caused. The production was quite a task, but working on it was fun for everyone concerned. There were also times of relaxation for this group. Before Christmas vacation the group had a Christmas party. After the presentation of the musical comedy the group had another party, and, naturally, the year wouldn't be complete without the chorus picnic.

The director this year, Max Collins, did a wonderful job with the chorus. Under his direction, the group gained much knowledge about singing and how to do it right. The officers elected for the year were Melvin Buster, president; Stan Lawrence, vice-president; Lorraine Kelley, secretary; and Marilyn Nesper, treasurer.

Two girls' sextettes were organized for the mixed chorus. The first, the Harmonettes, consisted of Lorraine Kelley, Donna Metzger, Barbara Meerdink, Betty Russell, Gloria Van Zyle, and Joanne Messenger. The pianist was Pat Beisner. The second sextette, the Blue Notes, was composed of Eileen Duggan, Marilyn Nesper, Janet Sywassink, Kathryn and Carolynn Stumme, and Alice Nichols.

Girls' Glee Club Sings Many Merry Songs

Approximately sixty-eight girls met once a week in the music room to blend their voices in harmony this year. To the girls the most appreciated time for their singing was the one period allotted to them from class time.

The group, under the direction of Max Collins, vocal instructor in M. H. S., had quite a heavy schedule. They favored the high school students with selections in three assembly programs, participated in a Christmas concert, and took part in a radio program in which the other music groups participated. In addition to these appearances, the girls sang in a Palm Sunday program and a spring concert.

Boys' Glee Club Fills Musky Halls With Music

F. G. Messenger decided M. H. S. was going to have a boys' glee club this year, and a glee club M. H. S. had. However, there was little doubt of the boys' enjoyment in the activity, once they got started. Max Collins, the director, did much toward molding this group of fifty boys into a smooth working, well balanced choir.

A few of the selections chosen for the boys by Mr. Collins, ranging from more serious work to popular numbers, were "Hoodah Dey," a sea chantey arranged by Noble Cain; "Open the Gates of the Temple," by Mrs. Joseph F. Knapp; "Prayer," a Polish melody arranged by Don Malin; and "April Showers," by Lewis Silvers. These were presented to the student body in assemblies and to the general public on the radio and in concerts.

Two hours were used each week for this group as a work shop for mixed chorus. The boys worked out their parts in a smaller group and so arrived nearer the goal of perfection.

Officers of the club were Melvin Buster, president; Don Myser, vice-president; John Hahn, secretary; and Dave Kelley, treasurer.

G. A. A. Girls Take Part in Various Sports

Sports is the keynote of all phases of Girls' Athletic Association activity. Along with volleyball, basketball, recreational sports, softball, and some track, G. A. A. tried a bit of touch football, and the results were bumps and bruises for many a day. The calendar of events included a snowball dance in December, which was attended by a large part of the student body, a hobo initiation party in the fall, a gift exchange at Christmas, and a chili supper in March.

Spring plans included an overnight trip to Rotary Lodge. This expedition is considered the highlight of an active year. In the spring, also, G. A. A. members were hostesses to girls from Davenport, Iowa City, Burlington, Washington, and Mt. Pleasant, who came to M. H. S. for a day of participation in volleyball, basketball, softball, relays, and track events.

Officers for the year were Marilyn Dilley, president; Marilyn Phelps, vice-president; Evelyn Sommerdorf, secretary-treasurer; and Rosie Doak, point-keeper. Miss Mary Jo Culhane, girls' physical education instructor, was the adviser.

. . . Musky Cheerleaders

Musky cheerleaders, Evelyn Hoopes, Mary Ann Yarck, Pat Ridge, Margery Stegall, Rosaine Stark, and Pat Zeug, took time out from their cheers to blow some pretty plastic bubbles.

Musky Captains . . .

Kenny Sturms, basketball captain and football co-captain, fondled a basketball while Earl Cochran, football co-captain, renewed football memories. Both boys were star performers.

L. A. Schnack, head basketball coach, Tom Bruner, assistant B Squad coach, and Harold Weber, head football mentor, looked over Musky equipment and discussed shortages.

Pep, Fight Headline Play of Green Muskies

Starting the season with only one returning regular and one other letterman, Coach L. A. Lefty Schnack once again developed a winning ball team that finished the season with a record of 14 wins and 7 defeats. The performance of the team this season was a pleasant surprise to all of the local fans, and the peppy play of the squad was always interesting to watch.

The Muskies suffered double defeats at the hands of Ottumwa, Davenport, and Burlington in addition to a single loss to Iowa City. The team seemed to have a foreign court jinx, losing five games played out of town.

Kenny Sturms, one of the lettermen from the 1946-47 season, was elected captain of the squad and received a first team all-conference berth, as well as placing second in Muscatine individual scoring. Kenny McCleary, the other returning letterman, led the team in scoring and was awarded a first team forward position on the all-conference squad. Ted Hahn, the third graduating senior from this season's team, was placed on the second all-conference team at center.

Coming out victors in ten of twenty games was the record compiled by the freshman-sophomore basketball team during the 1947-48 season. The freshman team also won one of the two games played against the Iowa City freshmen.

Under the guidance of Coach Bob Hanson, the team provided many thrills in all of their games played as preliminaries to the varsity games. The underclassmen opened the season with a loss to Davenport. They evened the ledger with a win over Keokuk the next week, but then lost three in a row before again hitting the victory trail with wins over Burlington, Washington, and Fort Madison. Iowa City stopped the winning streak momentarily, and a loss to Mt. Pleasant followed. Keokuk and Fairfield were the next victims of the Littlest Muskies, who then lost to Ottumwa and Burlington. The Hansonites chalked up wins over Clinton, Washington, and Fort Madison before falling prey to Davenport's team for the second time. In the final two games of the season the squad played two overtime games, winning from Mt. Pleasant and dropping the last tilt to Clinton.

Boys who completed their final season on the team were Marvin Skolnick, Kenny Riswold, Clifford Freyermuth, and Bernard Benninger, who played at the forward positions; Bob Lick and Walter Rittenhouse, at center; and Tom Johnson, Dick Powell, Bob Zwolanek, and Ed Negus at the guards. Bob Gosset, Jerry Stark, Don Powell, Bob Berry, and Ronald Beitz will all return to form the nucleus of next season's squad.

Underclassman Gridders Lose Four Games

The B Squad, although losing all of the four games on the schedule, gained much experience and learned many fundamentals and principles that will come in handy in future years. This season the squad was under the direction of Bob Hanson and Tom Bruner. The Reynolds, Illinois, varsity squad beat the team twice, 19–0 and 26–7. Wapello downed the Muskies after a hard tussle, 6–0, and the underclassmen lost a real toughie to West Liberty when the Comets scored the winning touchdown and extra point after the final gun had sounded to make the final score 14–13. Some 60 boys reported for the squad at the season's opening, but eligibility cut this number to 28 at the end of the year. Boys that Coach Hanson feels are bright prospects for the varsity are Gary Gordy, Bill Dietrich, Bob Smith, and Cliff Freyermuth in the backfield, and Bob Lick, Kenny Riswold, Bob Zwolanek, Bob Smalley, Clarence Rock, Bob Helm, Gene Meek, Louis Polsky, and Tom Johnson in the line.

Musky Eleven Features Strong Defense

The Musky A Squad piled up a record of two wins and six losses during the 1947 season. Opening the season against the powerful St. Ambrose Knights, the Muskies lost the first game played on the newly built Heinz Field by a score of 12–2. The Purple and Gold opened their defense of the conference title at Burlington and played great ball, but they finally succumbed to the Grayhounds, 13–6. A 7–0 loss at Keokuk followed before the squad racked up their first victory of the season, 23–0, at the expense of Washington. Mount Pleasant and Fort Madison added 2–0 defeats to the record, and Ottumwa finally eked out a 6–0 decision in the mud before the Webermen closed the season with a 6–0 triumph over the Fairfield Trojans. Among the individuals receiving honors were Stanley Lawrence, given a berth on the first all-conference team, and Earl Cochran and Bill Johnson, placed on the second team. Lawrence also placed on the fifth all-state team.

M. H. S. Senior Lettermen Complete Grid Careers

These Muskies played their last football season for Muscatine this year: Bill Ditch, guard; Dave Watson, guard; Dick Bunn, tackle; Joe Huff, tackle; Bob James, back; Kenny McCleary, back; Jack Brase, tackle; Stan Lawrence, center; Pete Johnson, tackle; Allen Messenger, back; Kenny James, guard; Gregory Beitz, tackle; Kenny Sturms, end; and Earl Cochran, end.

Wrestlers Battle Through Rugged Schedule

Lack of experience proved to be a great disadvantage as the Muscatine High School wrestling squad struggled through a schedule of nine dual meets, winning only one. With only Keith Bloomer and Bill Greenwald returning from last season, Coach Archie Martin's charges found the going rather rough this year.

Larry Buster was elected captain of this year's squad. Larry won 4 of his 10 bouts. The most consistent winner for the grapplers was Keith Bloomer, who won 7 of 14 matches. Other letter winners were Bill Greenwald, Don Mills, Harlan Phillips, Mickey Hagermann, and Neil Hyink.

The squad opened the season at Burlington, where the Grayhounds plastered a 39–5 defeat on the locals. In the Davenport Invitational, the next meet, Keith Bloomer placed second and Mickey Hagermann placed fourth in their respective weight classes. The Davenport B team defeated the Purple and Gold 19–9, as did Maquoketa, by a score of 33–10. The Burlington wrestlers won the second meet of the season with the Muskies here at home by a 26–16 count. Two consecutive losses to Rock Island followed, the first by a 40–3 count and the second by a score of $20\frac{1}{2}$–$14\frac{1}{2}$. The team won their only meet of the season at Davenport when they tangled with the B team of that city for the second time. The score was 20–18. Losses to Maquoketa and Moline closed the dual season. In the district tournament at Davenport Bill Greenwald placed third in his weight division.
